

LIABILITY RELEASE

Assumption of Risk

I, request permission to participate in farm, riding and other horse related activities with Ridgemor Farm, Inc. (RFI). In doing so, I fully understand that I am participating at my own risk. I further understand that farm labor and equestrian activities are inherently dangerous and have been associated with both minor and serious injuries to the extent of death. I understand that these injuries can include among others not specifically listed, scrapes, abrasions, cuts, bruises, fractures, spinal injuries, head injuries and death.

Hold Harmless Agreement

In consideration of being involved in equestrian activities and understanding the inherent risks, I hereby release and hold harmless and agree not to make any claim against RFI and its employees, the coaches, all horse owners, all land owners, and all equipment owners for any injury, including death, to me or any damage to my property whether from anyone's negligence or not, or any other cause, arising out of my participation in farm and horse related activities.

I also agree that if anyone makes a claim because of injury to me or my property I will keep all those released and held harmless by this agreement free of any damages or costs because of those claims.

Tennessee Code Annotated 44-20-103. (Tennessee Equine Activity Statue) Limitation on Liability for Injury or Death of Participant

Except as provided in TCA 44-20-104, an equine activity sponsor, an equine professional, or any other person, which shall include a corporation or partnership, shall not be liable for an injury to or the death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. Except as provided in TCA 44-20-104, no participant or participant's representative shall make any claim against, maintain an action against, or recover from an equine activity sponsor, an equine professional, or any other person for injury, loss, damage, or death of the participant resulting from any of the inherent risks of equine activities.
